On Friday evening the third meeting of the Home and School League was held at the Barren Hill Consolidated school. At the first meeting the Auditorium was about half filled. At the second meeting there were quite a few more, and at this, the third, meeting it was filled to overflowing, which goes to show the interest people are taking in these meetings, and as usual the entertainment given by the school children was a great success.

Ther were persons reported who visited the school, and it will be greatly appreciated if more patrons will take interest in this, as it is a benefit to teachers, parents and children. WASHINGTON SQUARE.

Mrs. William Lucket, of Washington Square, has good success with raising poultry this season. She set 55 turkey eggs and hatched 55 turkeys, and although she lost some during the wet weather she still has a fine flock. Most of them are gobblers weighing from 16 to 20 pounds each so that at the present price of about 60 cents a pound she will realize quite a handsome sume. She also hatched nearly 400 chickens, losing but very few, and her flock of Rhode Island Reds is a pretty sight. Besides being an excellent housekeeper and having the care of the poultry, she has found time to assist very materially in caring for the large amount of truck raised on their productive little 20-acre farm and can very truthfully be called a helpmate.

78 HOUSES FOR AMBLER.

Under Construction In or Near the Borough.

Dr. Mattison Has Extensive Operation in Church Street Section—Fretz Working on Large Construction Plans—Many Individual Homes.

That Ambler has felt and is now experiencing the general business depression less than many other sections is evident from the extensive building boom now incident to the growth of the borough and its immediate environs. In all 78 houses are undergoing construction at this time.

DR. MATTISON'S OPERATION.

Dr. Mattison has the most extensive operations under way between Trinity Green and Bannockburn avenue on Church Street, and also on Randolph avenue below Church street. Twenty-two of the finest little homes in Ambler are included in those buildings on Church street. These are eight-room single houses, the interior of which is entirely white with mahogany and oak finish. Cozy little stone pillared, and cement porches add much to the exterior attraction. Asbestos shingles on every roof also improve their appearance and insure stability together with economy and permancy. They also have steam heating, and all other conveniences and modern improvements.

Only six of the 23 under construction on Randolph avenue are above the foundations. These are all double houses of the same type as those now completed on Ambler road. Dr. Mattison has constructed the entire number with his own workmen under the control of his Lindenwold Farm operations, of which Wm. J. Devine is superintendent.

It is surprising the rapidity with which these houses are tenanted. nearly all those completed on Church street are now tenanted it appears that those now under construction will be immediately occupied when finished, the houses being in great demand for not only are they well built but they are rented at a very reasonable monthly rate.

MR. STUART'S ENTERPRISE.

R. O. P. Stuart has also commenced operations in the same vicinity on the former William Ellis propery. Mr. Stuart purchased the entire property and is now building up that section along Bannockburn avenue to the Springhouse and Chesnut Hill pike. Five attractive bungalows are nearly completed. These are of he colonial style, one and one-half stories in height, six rooms and attractively arranged wihin, with white finish and Chestnut wood work. A. L. Banks, contractor for Mr. Stuart, has also raised two, two-story, concrete block houses to the rear of the bungalows. These when enirely finished will be surrounded with pretty lawns and shade trees. Fronting on the pike is a large two-story, nine-room colonial house finished in white. All modern improvements are installed. Thes houses are now ready for sale. The prices range somewhat lower than heretofore. The bungalows are now offered for about $6000 while the houses are listed from $6500 and $8750.

JOSEPH H. FRETZ TO BUILD 20.

Joseph H. Fretz, contemplated erecting some twenty houses and bungalows in Oak Park. Seven are now begun and four bungalows are nearing completion. Four rooms and a kitchen comprise he down tairs arrangement, and there are two rooms above on the second floor.

Howard S. Amey and Amos Walton, local contractors, are building these and are making very rapid progress.

Several individual homes are also being put up the same section. Howard Amey has a small two-story frame house nearly completed for George Neeman on Reiffs Mill road, and Amos Walton has the foundation of a small house laid for George Bowers on top of hill in Oak park near Mt. Pleasant avenue.

Harvey Cook and Frank McDowell have purchased lots on the same location and contemplate building next spring.

OTHER IMPROVEMENTS.

Less extensive operations are under way at Rose Valley, in the section along North street between Mattison avenue and the Lindenwold Athletic field, and on the lower end of the Dr. Brister property, along Tennis avenue. James Bartleson is constructing two substantial bungalows for Dr. Brister who will offer them for sale when finished.

These are 2½ story structures containing eight rooms and are held for about $9000 each.

Thomas Kenderdine and Son have nearly completed four houses on Fairview avenue, one of which Clarence Ferguson has bought, and another is about to be finished for Mrs. William Leach of Ambler.. Other houses begun in the vicinity are two for R. M. Hallowell on Butler avenue, the cellars of which have just been excavated, and a house now being built by U. G. Buchanan to the rear of these on what is an extension of Heckler street.

Along North street in the Turner tract Joseph V. Campbell has built a large two-story yellow dashed house. There are an abundance of French Windows, a large front porch extending on two sides, and the vari-colored slate roof give the building a very attractive appearance. Within, there are three large rooms on the first floor a telephone booth and large coat closet. On the second floor are five bed rooms and two baths. Two rooms in the attic afford excellent storage space. The estimated cost of this property is in the neighborhood of $19,000.

On Rosemary avenue, Stuart Woodward has two stories completed of a pretty little three-story house of 10 rooms. The interior is to be finished in white with mahogany doors.

Joseph Kemmerer who is at present helping Mr. Woodward. will later finish a 2 1-2-story tile house for himself.

John D. Stackhouse has about finished a 12-room house for C. M. Heiss, on Mattison avenue and he has also started, for the same owner, the rebuilding and remodeling of the barn on the old Thomas Rose property at the corner of North street and Mattison avenue.

Acivities in building has also extended into the colored settlement on North street, where A. L. Banks, of Lansdale, is erecting a concrete block house for Mrs. Wm. Hewlitt.

In all, there are seventy-eight or more houses now under construction in or near Ambler. Dr. R. V. Mattison leads with forty-eight houses, while Fretz, with Amey and Walton as contractors, is building seven or more. These same contractors are also building for George Neeman and George Bowers. T. K. Kenderdine has four nearly completed; James Bartleson, two; R. M. Hallowell, two; A. L. Banks who is contracting for R. O. P. Stuart, has nine, and those owners or builders now working on one are Woodward, Kemmerer, Campbell and Buchanan.

With these facts before us it seems practically assured that not only the pressing need for homes in and about Ambler will be relieved, and that our locality is suffering very little, if any, from unemployment conditions or hard times such as are experienced in other sections.

counties and these organizations that have been favored with a good crop are using every effort to put these potatoes in those markets that offer the best advantage. Care will be used to grade and pack this stock according to U. S. Standard Grades and it is planned to put this stock on the market in an orderly manner so as to avoid the glutted markets that so often occurr.

The Bureau of Markets of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture has a specialist working with these cooperative organizations to see that the marketing is done to the greatest advantage of producers and consumers.

—200 Perkasie volunteers in two days improved 1 1-2 miles of highway in the borough limits.

Liquor Thieves Jailed.

For holding up Charles Rotzell and taking three barrels of whisky which he had on a motor truck on Germantown pike, Hickorytown, Daniel Boyle was sent to jail for three years. His associate, Edward Kerley, was given the same sentence, but in addition he serve eighteen months, at the explanation of the three years ,for stealing eight barrels of whisky from Dougherty's barn, Plymouth, which belonged to Francis Hayes.

Others implicated in the Dougherty barn robbery received these sentences: Clinton Gotschalt, eighteen months; Edward Dwyer, one year; Howard Ashworth, one year. Victor D. Hollis, ringleader, was given eighteen months.

Rapid Flight by Pigeons.

Fifty-five homing pigeons flew from the roof of The North American building, Philadelphia to Sellersville, the speediest one negotiating the 25-mile distance, "as the crow flies," in forty minutes.

Lady Red Wing, owned by Charles H. Price, Jr., of Telford, was the victor. She beat two of her nearest rivals by three minutes. Most of the flock finished in fify minutes, which was considered very good time by pigeon connoisseurs. The journey by train takes one hour and two minutes.

New Real Estate Firm.

A new firm of real estate and insurance brokers has entered the Norristown field. C. A. Desimone, who has been engaged in such lines for many years in Conshohocken and George Wm. Aberle, an overseas veteran and well known in the automobile fraternity, have formed a partnership for the Norristown territory and will conduct their business under the name of Wm. Oberle, an overseas veteran and the entire third floor of the Palace building at Main and DeKalb streets, where their business will be conducted.

The menu was featured by the generous serving of venison. Dr. Fordyce killed two deer, weighing 220 and 160 pound each. The larger deer had eight pronged antlers. The Suburb

To be of the city but not in it is the advantage of those who live in the delightful communities that surround the great metropolis of Philadelphia.

Near enough to be a part of the industrial or commercial life of the city, but distant enough to enjoy the shade of trees and the scent of flowers, the suburbanite is doubly fortunate.

In the development of Philadelphia's suburbs the men and women of the Bell Telephone Company have had an important part. Their effort is to provide quick and constant communication between home and office, between neighbor and neighbor.

Day and night they are alert to maintain the high standard that distinguishes telephone service in America as the best in the world.

NEW USES FOR WASTE.

State Quarry Refuse Utilized in Rubber Goods.

Slate Flour Has Great Advantage in Price Over Other Materials—Manufacture of Filled for Road Asphalt Mixtures Is Promising Field.

Washington, D. C.—Numerous new uses for a waste product, the refuse of slate quarries, are pointed out by the United States Bureau of Mines as the result of an investigation made in cooperation with manufacturers of mechanical rubber goods. From 80 to 95 per cent. of the gross production of all slate quarries in the United States, has been discarded as waste, and the expense involved in hauling so much unsalable material has added greatly to the cost of finished slate.

As a result of the experiments, it is indicated that pulverized slate, or slate flour, may be used satisfactorily as a filler, to give "body" or to supply the necessary wearing qualities to such everyday accessories as garden hose, rubber shoe heels and soles, carriage tires and rubber packing and disks of various kinds. It developes also that ground slate may be used to advantage as a constituent of some classes of linoleums, oil cloth and window shades. It is possible that, with finer grinding, the material may prove a satisfactory filler in the making of automobile tires, phonograph records and other products requiring extremely fine-grained filler.

For plastic roofing and flooring products containing coal tar, pulverized slate has long been in use and constitutes a very satisfactory filler. The insoluble character of slate renders it of especial value for acid-proof plastic flooring and lining for acid tanks. About 75 per cent. of the volume of certain types of plastic flooring is made up of ground slate, and probably several hundred carloads per year of waste slate are used for this purpose.

In these new fields of utilization, pulverized slate will have to compete with talc, soapstone, foreign and domestic china clays, pulverized limestone or marble, ground or mineral paint, and other materials now used extensively as fillers. Slate flour has a great advantage in price over certain of the materials.

The Bureau of Mines has previously pointed out that the manufacture of filler for road asphalt mixtures is a promising field for slate waste utilization. The tonnage of filler used in such asphalt mixtures is very great, it being estimated that the city of New York alone requires 50,000 tons per year.

According to the United State Geological Survey, the production of slate in this country in 1920 amounted in value to $8,726,442. Included in this was roofing slate of a valuation of $3,524,658. Over four million school slates were manufactured in the United States in the same year. Blackboard and bulletin and billiard-table stock are also important items in slate manufacture. Pennsylvania was the leading producer of slate in 1920 with an output valued at $3,850,267. Vermont ranked second with a production valued at $3,182,477. Other leading States were New York, $911,293; Maine, $450,561; Virginia, $251,055, and Maryland, $80,789.

Will Erect Houses at Lansdale.

To relieve the house shortage situated at Lansdale, the Lansdale board of trade is backing a movement to erect a large number of medium-priced houses during the coming year. A meeting of manufacturers, business men and other citizens has been called to map out the campaign. Members of a board of trade committee appointed are J. C. Swartley, Frank M. Weaver and George R. Huff.

Miss Margery Turner, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., student at George school, spent week-end as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Claudius W. Haywod, Jr., near Ambler.

The Christmas club at the First National Bank of Ambler is ready to open for 1922. Checks in the expiring club are being mailed in full for all payments plus 3 1-2 per cent interest.

The Women's Home Mission society, of Calvary M. E. church, will meet on Dec. 7th, at 2.30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. A. S. Felt, 100 Hendricks street. All members are urged to attend. A cordial welcome to all.

Charles M. Shull, who recently sold his business in the Knight building, will remain in Ambler until Spring at least, by which time he will have been able to decide just what business he will enter in the immediate future.

Dr. Katharine S. Hall, who for several years was located near Ambler, has purchased the Keith property, on Concord road, Westtown, and will enter into a larger work of treatment and care of patients suffering from nervous and mental troubles.

The owners of the Ambler Opera house have overhauled the house during the past week putting a beautiful oak floor upon the stage for vaudeville work, skating, dancing and the like, have painted the walls, arranged the banners and have improved the room in a very marked manner. The department at Harrisburg is now considering the substitution of green lights (meaning "safety") for the red lights (meaning "danger") at the doors, which are marked "This way out."

Latest of the numerous accidents at Rose Valley is the overturning of a small International motor truck was into the ditch last Friday. The truck traveling south on Bethlehem pike and at the same time a touring car, owned by Raymond Weidner, of Prospectville, neared the crossing at Rose Valley from the west side. The truck driver, having the right of way swerved over to avoid hitting the car, but in doing so hit the culvert and then struck at the rear end by Weidner's car was pushed over the culvert and toppled into the gutter on the lower side of Butler avenue, top downward. No one was seriously hurt, but the truck body, which was new and just out of the Bailey Manufacturing Company's factory at North Wales, was broken and the North Wales, was broken and the the top mashed to pieces. Weidner's car was damaged very little, having only one front lamp torn off and the fender bent. Rose Valley has already made a plea to the State for a traffic policeman to be stationed at this dangerous crossing, and it is hoped that the state will soon take favorable action.

On Wednesday evening a novel and delightful program was presented at the Ambler opera house. It was a clever combination of concert and comedy developed from local talent by Mr. James Tilbury, choirmaster at the Trinity Memorial church. These he called the "Popular Pierrots." Many popular and well selected songs, intermingled with humorous recitations and duets were rendered. Mr. Tilbury, who was the keystone of the play, was particularly drole. His humorous recitation in which he very creditably enacted the part of Rev. Mr. Rudd's third assistant, was well received. The humorous duet, which he sang with Mr. M. S. Gerhart, was exceedingly clever. Mr. Tilbury also sang parodies, written by himself which demonstrated his clever versality and humorous conception of various phazes of life. Mr. Ralph T. Folwell, who assisted Mr. Tilbury, was also very clever in his actions and kept things going at a lively rate from the stage. Other than to render several fine solos, Mr. Folwell took no other prominent part, but his drole humor and comic accompaniments and witty sayings kept the audience amused at all times. Other performers and singers who rendered fine selections were Mrs. William Unruh, who gave a humorous characterization of an old fashioned country girl; Mrs. R. D. Talbert, who demonstrated her ability with the violin, and Miss Pearl Aiman, Miss Mary Ancona Mrs. Harry Applin ,Mrs. James Tilbury, Mrs. M. T. Rhoades, and Mr. L. C. Robothan, who presented the popular, restimental and humorous songs. The play itself was a tremendous success, and the proceeds are to go to the music fund of the church in which Mr. Tilbury is the efficient choir master.

WYNDMOOR.

Our public school resumed its sessions Monday morning after being closed for the Thanksgiving holidays.

The outside part of the new addition to the Rev. Father Corley's house has been completed.

Joseph and Thomas Donofry and Henry and Gustave Spangler enjoyed a hunting trip Thanksgiving day to Pine Grove and report only having fair luck.

An enjoyable event took place here last Saturday evening when a number of the friends of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Ramsey gave them a house warming in their new home. The event was a surprise, and all spent a very pleasant evening.

The remains of Joseph Connoly, who died suddenly last Friday at his home on Abington avenue, were interred Monday morning in Holy Sepulchre cemetery. Mass was also said over the body in the Church of the Seven Dolors. The deceased was 23 years of age and leaves a wife and one child and is also survived by his parents.

Quite a number of persons attended the entertainment in the Ambler opera house last week of persons attended given by James Tilbury, formerly choirmaster of Grace Lutheran church. The event was given for the benefit of Trinity Memorial church, Ambler.

Mrs. A. R. Unruh is suffering from a severe cold.

FLOURTOWN.

The work on the exterior of the Shorely property, on the pike, is about finished.

The Union Thanksgiving service Wednesday evning held in Zion Lutheran church was well attended. The Rev. A. F. Lott, pastor of Springfield Presbyterian church, preached the sermon.

There are quite a number of thoroughbred dogs now boarding at the Bagpipe Kennels.

Recently at the donation party held by the Flourtown Fire company, from which $100 was realized, a ton of coal was awarded to William Gerstlauer, and a party in West Philadelphia was awarded the turkey, and the goose went to a party in Germantown.

No better evidence was needed than on Monday morning regarding the reckless way that automobiles are being operated on the pike. A Ford runabout was coming south at a terrific rate of speed and the machine approached the railroad crossing at the same time that a train was due. The gates were down and the flagman was standing at his post, and as he saw the car coming at the high rate of speed he ran forward shouting a warning. The driver of the machine seeing that if he continued he would run upon the tracks directly in front of the uncoming engine turned almost on two wheels and ran into the driveway of the church, which alone saved them from being ground under the wheels of the locomotive.

December 10th the Flourtown Fire company will hold a Sauer Kraut supper in Odd Fellow's hall from 6 to 9 p. m. A dance will follow.
Fellows' hall from 6 to 9 p. m. A dance will follow.

Three automobile accidents happened last week on the pike in this section, but so far as can be learned no one was injured.

Services will be held as usual next Sunday in Springfield Presbyterian church and on Wednesday evening the regular weekly prayer services will be held, and at the close there will be a meeting of the officers and teachers of the Sabbath school for the purpose of electing officers for the year 1922.

Thomas Lane and family, of Dresher, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Hedrick on Thanksgiving day.

An important meeting of the Flourtown Fire company will be held this Thursday evening. It will be the regular monthly session of the company and nomination of officers will take place, while there will also be other important business to come before the members. A large attendance is urged.

The Ladies' Aid society, of Springfield Presbyterian church, will celebrate its 35th anniversary Tuesday evening, December 6th, by giving an apron social and entertainment. The whole affair is set forth in a neat rhyme which is as follows: "A little apron we give to you. Please read this slip so you know what to do. Round your waist you measure inch by inch. Of course you know you must not pinch. Now for each inch you put a penny some will be few; others, many. If you do not care your size to tell, a dollar bill will do as well. Then on Tuesday, December 6th, an entertainment; please appear. That you will be disappointed you need not fear, and your pennies for Ladies' Aid bring to Springfield Presbyterian church and help to sing. We promise a dioalouge with plenty of fun to keep you laughing until is done." You cannot afford to miss this even though you were twice the size around the waist.

Regular services Sunday morning at the Zion Lutheran church. L. Y. P. U. meets at 6.45 p. m., and at 7.45 p. m., the Rev. Paul I. Morentz, Jewish missionary, will preach on "The Jewish Question From the Christian Standpoint." Catechism class, Friday 4.15 p. m.

This Friday at 4 p. m. the members of the Zion Lutheran church will open their bazaar in Odd Fellows' hall. The bazaar will be continued Friday evening, and Saturday afternoon and evening. The only business at present in Ambler which seems to be unusually prosperous appears to be that of the Water Company, which reports about 100 new water consumers for the year.

A congregational social will be held in Upper Dublin Lutheran church this Friday evening at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Young People's Missionary society, to which all members and friends are invited. An interesting entertainment will be given by the young people of the church. Silver offering for the benefit of the society.

Persons attending the "movies" at the Ambler opera house have persisted in parking their cars so near the entrance as to seriously incommode the fire company's operations in case of fire, an in consequence of this the management have, as a police measure, ordered all cars to park upon the north side of the street. No one has objected to this, as eveyone recognizes the necessity for regulation in spite of some little possible inconvenience.

The football game between Ambler Field and Souderton, to be played at Sellersville on Saturday, was called off by Souderton. Ambler again played a wonderful game against Doylestown on Thanksgiving day. Despite the rain the game was well played in the mud, but nvertheless both teams gave a splendid exhibition of sport. Doylestown won by two safeties, and the game ended 4 to 0. Ambler will continue to play every Saturday as long as the weather conditions permit.

O. H. Stillwagon, local druggist, is conducting a great cut-price sale of his immense stock at his drug store on North Main street. The prices, listed in the windows, show rates cut to pre-war figures, and the opportunity to lay in a supply of medicines, toilet articles etc., is one that is being eagerly seized by purchasers and housekeepers both for present and future use and for holiday gifts. The stock is of first-class selection and has been purchased during the past few weeks after careful investigation.

The Asbestos Shingle Slate and Sheathing Company went to work on Monday after being shut down all of last week for necessary repairs. It is hoped that it may be able to run steadly throughout the winter, although it is adding every week to its stock of shingles in its warehouse, which does not look god for the business, as it costs great deal of money to pile up stock in the warehouse instead of shipping it out to customers.

Mr. Royal Mattison has gone to Chicago, Omaha, and other points in an endeavor to secure more business for the Asbestos Shingle Slate Sheathing Company, as every effort is being made to keep the factory running full handed until spring opens, so as to keep the employes busy during the winter months if possible, instead of shutting down the factory for the next three or four months.

Anticipating the passing of the Hart meadow into his possession shortly, Dr. Mattison has had a survey made of its possibilities in the way of water storage and will convey thsi portion of the Hart estate to the possession of the Ambler Spring Water Co. for water stor- Water purposes with the water storage purposes with the erection of a tower opposite St. Anthony's R. C. church, as an auxiliary to the present water system of the Borough. A dam capable of holding ten million gallons of water will be installed at or near the westerly line of the property. It is anticipated that he reservoir will be of about the same area as Loch-Linden dam will hold about the same quantity of water. It will no doubt be an attractive landscape feature and may possibly form a skating park in the winter season within easy distance of most of the inhabitants of the borough. It is anticipated that a small reservoir may be built here next summer, and that this will be added to later as opportunity offers.

The Philadelphia branch of the American committee for devastation France, will present, at the Chestnut Hill theatre this Friday "The Heritage of France," a war aftermath story in four reels. These films were made in certain towns on the Ainse river, not in a movie town. They show the life of a typical French family from before the war, until they returned to their home in 1919. Films will also be shown of the French troops entering Metz and the restoration work being done by the American committee, helping to restore the land to agriculture, changing the remains of the houses into real living quarters, clothing grown people and infants, infant and child hygiene, visiting nurse work and training boys to be Boy Scout leaders. There will also be the first public exhibition of natural color photos toned by the Photo Color Corp., Roxborough, Philadelphia. The admission will be 25 cents at 4 o'clock; 35cents at 7 and 8 o'clock. The proceeds will be sent to give French children a real Christmas.

The Ambler Colony Club held its regular meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 23rd. The club room was crowded with members and guests, who had come to hear Miss Agnes Clune Quinlan in a lecture-recital on "The Ancient Music and Instruments of Ireland". Miss Quinlan is a well known pianist of Philadelphia, and those in charge of the club programs are to be congratulated on securing such a delightful artist for an afternoon. Miss Quinlan's lecture was of the delightful friend-to-friend style, and the stories of the origin of the airs to be played, and the personal glimpses of the composers were charming bits of gossip. At a musical conference it was declared that of all folk music, the Irish folk music is best and these fortunate enough to hear Miss Quinlan, agreed with that statement. Preceding the musical program, Mrs. Mehler introduced Mrs. A. K. Gregory, of the Bala Cynwyd club, who had kindly consented to read the report of the State Convention of Federated Women's Clubs held at Pittsburgh. This splendid report told facts in an interesting and unusual manner. Mrs. Gregory had no difficulty in holding the attention of her audience during the 25 minutes required to read the report. At the conclusion, Mrs. Mehler asked for a rising vote of thanks to Mrs. Gregory for her kindness in coming to the Colony club and giving the members an apportunity to know what the Pennsylvania Women's Clubs are doing. The day had been set aside for giving and ther was a generous supply of provisions, and money donated by the members. The exchange table was most attractive, and members are requested to bring food or fancy articls to be sold.

Owing to the continued dulness of business in magnesia products the Keasbey and Mattison Company will continue the shut down over Christmas, but with the beginning of the year will start up again upon both day and night shifts, five days per week as usual possibly six. If the product of manufacture can be sold it will run six days per week, as with other plants working six days it is difficult to meet the very low prices at which other magnesia manufactures are sold, without working six days. The magnesia business is entering upon a life and death struggle for next year and already two or three factories have fallen by the way side. The epoch of the "survival of the fittest" is at hand, which means low wages and no profits or perhaps no work at all. In any event the immediate future of the magnesia business depends both upon the management, and the interest that each employe take in his work.

Several interesting cases were heard before Justice of the Peace Urban during the fore part of the week. In the case of trespassing resulting from the charge that Myer Hankin allowed his cows to enter upon the lands of Philip Barnes, which hearing had been continued from last week, Hankin, the defendant, was obliged to pay the cost, the fine being remitted. Following this case there was quite a legal battle waged between Attorneys Acuff and Knight in the suit entered by Samuel Hankin against Harry Golubsky. Mr. Acuff represented the former, while Golubsky's interest was looked after by Mr. Knight. From the testimony it was shown that Hankin in June, 1920, purchased standing grass and mow space on the Whitmer farm, Horsham township, to the amount of $172.-50. Golubsky also bought grass at the same sale, and it is contended by the prosecutions that when he, Golubsky, cut his grass he also mowed some of Hankin's Grass, and in addition he used the mow space rented by Hankin. Before proceeding with the case the local Justice raised the question of Jurisdiction. However it was agreed by both attorneys to allow the case to go on account of the illness of some of the witnesses the case was continued until a later date. Constable Elmer Grubb, of Fort Washington, did some excellent detective work last Saturday, when he apprehended, in Germantown, the three men wanted for the attack made upon Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Worthline, of Prospectville, on Tuesday, November 22. The three men in question were hunting at the time and upon being ordered off the lands of Mr. Worthline they commenced an attack upon him. Mrs. Worthline in going to her husband's rescue was also struck several blows. Only one hunting license number could be procured. The owner was located and on Saturday night all three of the men wanted were arrested by Constable Grubb and were later held by Magistrate Pennock under $1500 bail, each for a further hearing. The men appeared before Justice of the Peace Urban Monday afternoon and were given a hearing. They gave their names as John and Francis Belhardt and Samuel Washington, all of Germantown. After hearing the evidence Washington was discharged upon payment of cost, and the other two defendants were each held under $800 bail for appearance at the next term of court. Also, on Sunday morning Constable Grubb brought from the City hall, Philadelphia, Steve Beamish who was wanted for jumping a board bill. The charge was preferred by Frank Novock, of Maple street. The case was heard before the local Justice and Satisfaction secured for the prosecution. Benjamin Runner, colored, of Race street having taken on hand considerable "Jump Steady," entered the store in the Armon building and proceeded to tell men how to run things. Runner grew so insistent that Officer Crockett was sent for and later Runner appeared before Justice Urban and was sent to spend the night in the "cooler". The next day he was released upon paying cost of prosecution.

The Home and School league will hold its regular monthly meeting in the Mattison avenue school building Thursday evening, December 8. A special effort is under way to make this meeting one of more than ordinary importance, and residents of the borough are invited to attend. An enjoyable program is being prepared, and it will pay all to remember the date and be present to participate in the exercises.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Augustine, of Philadelphia, formerly of Ambler, were visiting friends here on Tuesday evening.

Miss Anna L. Kohl, who was the social service nurse stationed at Ambler, has been transferred to Lansdale, where she will serve as community nurse.

Mrs. Hattie Martin, of Ridge avenue is recovering from injuries sustained on Tuesday, when she tripped and fell down the stairs. She was cut about her head and bruised bodily.

Lewis Biddle and D. Brooke Johnson, who motored to Juniata county, last Wednesday, met stormy weather and were unable to do very much hunting. However, they bagged a few birds and returned later in the week.

The Strol Catholic club held its weekly social meeting at the home of the Misses Gertrude and Anna and Mr. James Dougherty, of Tennis avenue, Ambler, with an attendance of 48. One of the features of the evening was dancing, of which also several new demonstrations were given. After refreshments were served and everyone had a jolly time the meeting adjourned and the next meeting, which will be a business session, will be held at the home of Miss Julia and Mr. Joseph McCall, North Wales, this Friday.

A reliable, dependable, easy running, easy riding, economical in gasoline, oil and assuring long life to tires—such is the car you are looking for. I beg to call your attention to the Buick. Tresspass notices on sale at the "Gazette" office are prepared in conformity with the existing state laws. The provision is that the property must be "prominently posted" with a "printed sign." The sign is required to state that the land is private property and that trespassing thereon is prohibited, and in addition the act of assembly must be stated at the foot of the card. Property owners have desire to proceed legally against trespassers must comply with this law themselves with regard to the nature of the notice posted on their property, else legal action will fail, no matter how flagrant the violation. If you desire to close your land, secure these "Gazette" office notices and post them "prominently," as required by the law.

A public square is suggested for Ambler by one old resident who has studied street conditions for some time, especially with regard to the automobile parking problems. He recites the convenience and general beauty and comfort derived from public squares in other towns and notes the rapidly increasing number of motor cars and trucks. In former times the large stable yards in the rear of hotels and other shedding relieved street conditions when teams were employed, but now these storage places are being closed out and are giving way to improvements. It is suggested that some property be secured in the central part of Ambler where a public square maye be secured for public purposes.

Two gunners met the other day, writes a local resident to the "Gazette," and one said to the other, "I have not seen you for many years—20, at least, It was at the 45th anniversary of their host. After enjoying a good dinner the men folk gathered in the smoking room, and among the guests were hunters who were well able from experience to tell how to hunt moose in Maine, deer and wild turkey in Pennsylvania, and some who had fished and hunted from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and there seemed no end to their reminiscenses of both good and bad luck. Two stories, however, seem well worth repeating, one of which is the experience of a young hunter after his first deer. He said, "Five of us went up into the deer country and we engaged two guides at the rate of $5 each per day. It was a cold, wet morning—just the kind, the guides said, to get near a deer without making much noise. They started early to find the deer feeding if possible. The guides took them to the best hunting ground in the range and stationed each man of the five, telling them that they, the guides would go out and drive the deer that way, the animals being sure to pass through the guarded opening. With assurances of good shooting within a half hour the guides moved away into the thickets. Soon rain fell and the air grew colder. 9 o'clock came and no deer, likewise no guides. 10 o'clock and still no action, but with more rain and more cold, and the young hunter called to his nearest buddy saying he was determined to try to find the hotel, so two of them left their posts, leaving three on guard for game, and after a great deal of labor found the road to the hotel, and reaching shelter discovered the two guides seated behind a warm stove smoking the good cigars which the hunters had provided and not a wet stitch of clothing on them.

Funeral of Miss Kister.

Some Pumpkin.

A pumpkin said to be the largest grown this year in Montgomery county has been on exhibition in the window at Weber Bros. store 125 West Main street, Norristown. This mammoth vegetable was grown on the farm of Wm. W. Walker, at King of Prussia. It is one of five that came from a single vine. Altogether they weighed nearly 500 pounds.

Old Buddies of '61 Eat Navy Chow Again.

Adolph S. Lowe, Lansdale's veteran of both the Civil and World wars, who is seventy-six years old, ate "chow" in old-fashioned navy style with his "buddie" of '61 at his home here the other day.

The "buddie" is Oliver Lawson, of Philadelphia, who is considerably more than seventy years of age.

The two were in the Union Navy during the Civil War and were members of the same gun crew on the United States steamship Seminole in an engagement November 7, 1861, off Port Royal, South Carolina.

Mr. Lowe served during the Civil War and has the distinction of being probably the only Civil War veteran who was in the service in the World War.

When the two "vets" had "chow" together many yarns of the seas were spun.

The distate of a "gob" for anything connected with the army was evidenced by a declaration made by Lowe.

While discussing his navy record a newspaperman called him "colonel".

"Pull in your topsail, son," the old seaman replied. "Call me deck swabber, if you want, but forget the 'colonel' stuff."

Dickerson a Logical Appointment.

That the county commissioners were acting strictly in accordance with the law, and for the best interests of the county, by appointing Wm. S. Dickerson to collect delinquent taxes for 1921, was explained in a statement issued by Roy A. Hatfield, president of the commissioners.

Mr. Hatfield's statement says that due to the death of George H. Alker, the burden of collection has fallen on his bondsmen. The bondsmen appointed Miss Alker to act for them, but the county has no authority to appoint an individual.

Miss Alker has filed no bond to collect county taxes, and will not officially be tax collector until next year. In addition to this, Miss Alker was elected to collect school board taxes and not for county taxes.

DeKalb Street Road to Be Fixed.

"Sticking everlasting at it brings success." At least, the Montgomery County Good Roads association adopted that policy, and, after plugging along for many months, has succeeded inducing Goovernor Sproul to replace one of the main roads of the list for rebuilding next Spring.

The good news was sprung at a recent meeting of the association held at Norristown.

President Adolph Muller made the announcement and backed it up with letters from Mr. Sadler and Mr. Johnson. The road to be built is known on the plan as Route 178—DeKalb street from Germantown pike to Sumneytown pike.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract severe colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding attack and paves the way for the more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds may be had for a trifle? dec

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Mother's Favorite.

The soothing and healing properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures have made it a favorite with people everywhere. It is especially prized by mothers of young children for colds, croup and whooping cough, as it always affords quick relief and is free from opium and other harmful drugs. dec

Pardon for Silvers

Charles Silvers, the aged doortender of the Wheel Pump gambling den, who was sentenced to six months in jail in September, will be pardoned it has been announced. The application has been recommended by the state board of Pardons, after it was represented that Silvers was only a doortender and not a principal in the establishment.

It was also argued that John McGoldrick, proprietor of the hotel fought the case to a conviction and got only three months, whereas Silvers admitted his guilt and got the longer sentence.

When You Are Constipated.

To insure a healthy action of the bowels and correct disorders of the liver, take two of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper. They will not only cause a gentle movement of the bowels, without unpleasant effects, but banish that dull, sttupid feeling, that often accompanies constipation. dec

Gas Industry Leaders Convene in Chicago.

A. C. Bedford, chairman of the board of directors of the Standard Oil company; Samuel Insull, president People's Gas Light and Coke company, Chicago, and George B. Cortelyou, president of the Consolidated Gas company of New York, were among the principal speakers at he Annual Convention of the American Gas Association, in Chicago, November 9th to 12th.

Among the Philadelphians who addressed the convention were Charles Coolidge Parlin, of the Curtis Publishing company: J. B. Myers, of the U. G. I. company; L. R. Dutton, Jenkintown, and J. D. Shattuck, Chester, of the Philadelphia Suburban Gas and Electric company.

A dispatch from Chicago, dated November 7th, calls attention to the report of the gas oil committee, of the association, showing a deficiency of oil in this country in 1921 of 67 million barrels which must be supplied by imports. For the protection of gas consumers, the gas oil committee of the association, composed of J. B. Klumpp, chairman, Philadelphia; L. R. Dutton, Jenkintown; D. D. Barnum, Boston, and R. B. Brown, Milwaukee, also declares that the imposition of a tax on petroleum were cut the supply of oil coming from Mexico and other outside fields, will effect consumers of gas adversely.

Mr. Dutton is also one of the seventeen directors of The American Gas association and chairman of the nominating committee, of the technical section, and it will be noted that his efforts are directed in the interests of gas consumers of this suburban district.

Another matter that will have serious the retarding effect which stringent regulation is having on the quality of gas to be supplied and the ability of the companies to develop new and economic processes for manufacturing gas; viz., processes which will use cheaper fuels or enable gas to be produced with some substitute for oil and other raw materials.

tems of Passing Interest Condensed in Short Paragraphs.

Wm. H. Taggart Somewhat Better—Thanksgiving Union Service—Postoffice Inspector Here—Postmaster's Salary $1400—Fire Company Matters Discussed.

William and Joseph Swartley, of Reading, spent Sunday here with friends.

A postoffice inspector visited the local office last week and after part of a morning's work left here to go to Willow Grove. He found Postmaster Kittson's accounts correct and had little to suggest. The postmaster's salary has been made $1400 for the next year.

William H. Taggart, who has been in Chestnut Hill hospital for several weeks, is reported steadily improving.

On Thanksgiving morning a union service was held in St. Paul's Reformed church. Rev. Mr. Hoh, of the Trinity Lutheran church, preached an interesting sermon.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Mower spent Thanksgiving day with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fehrer, of Hoopeston.

Thomas Moll and Charles Hetzell spent several days recently in Atlantic City.

Arbuckle-Gordon company has done some grading bout the entrance to the company's yard.

Bytheway and Murphy, painters, have just completed painting a number of houses here.

Ralph Michener, after having spent the Thanksgiving holidays here with his parents, has returned to his studies at State college.

Quite a number of residents attended the Cheltenham-Abington high school football game on Thanksgiving day despite the rain.

According to current report it begins to look as though we are to see another upheavel among our people. During the last week it is said that certain members connected with the local fire company have been going around lining up their forces to vote certain men out of office at the annual election of the company which is to be held this month. If this is a fact it is all wrong because the same methods that are used in politics should not be employed in electing or defeating any official. There is nothing that will work more harm than to adopt political methods in a fire company in order to bring about the results desired. The best and proper form to adopt is to nominate several men for one office and then let the members choose which shall fill the office. Harmony and peace and the rule of a real majority should always be the watchword in the fire company, as it means a more efficient organization. Let there be a big turn out at the next meeting, which will be the second Thursday evening in this month and let the best men be nominated and elected so that the best interest of the company will be served.

A Philadelphia taxi driver, one night last week plowed into a group of eight horses near the Whitemarsh school house on the turnpike, killing one of the animals, which had been purchased in Philadelphia and were being delivered to the new owner at Lansdale. The driver when given a hearing before Justice of the Peace Rhoads pleaded that the dense fog in the valley near the Wissahickon completely obscured his vision.

The Keasbey and Mattison company, owner of the old Wentz property and quarries, has purchased a crushing plant for use in working up the spaals from the quarry operation into road making material. The limestone is hauled by motor trucks to the company's plant at Ambler.

On Monday morning the pupils of Plymouth township's enlarged school at Ivy Rock were moved over into the newly completed addition, and now the old structure is being made to conform architecturally and fit into the new. The fine new building at Black Horse will probably be open just after the first of the year. Gas Man.
Some people question our sincerity when we urge our customers not to waste gas. "Why should you care?" They say, "The more gas people waste the higher the bills are and the more money you get."
To those unacquainted with the facts, this sounds reasonable enough but nothing could be further from the truth. The goodwill of the public is our best asset. We want satisfied customers. It is easy to see, therefore, that a friendly customer with a small bill is more to our advantage than a customer with a big bill who thinks he has been overcharged.
Of course, we cannot regulate the amount of gas that you use, but we can and do urge you to take care that your consumption does not exceed your actual needs. In other words, we want you to obtain complete satisfaction from your gas service. Could anything be fairer?
